ORDER

HERNDON, Chief Judge:

Michael L. Gilyard, an Illinois state prisoner, has filed a pro se petition for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. The petitioner challenges, on multiple grounds, his sixty year sentence for felony murder predicated on home invasion.

The petitioner was convicted in Lake County, Illinois. Lake County lies within the Northern District of Illinois federal judicial district. See 28 U.S.C. § 93(a). Under 28 U.S.C. § 2241(d), a state prisoner is authorized to file a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in either the federal judicial district of his confinement or the federal judicial district of his conviction. However, given the ready availability of court records and, if necessary, potential witnesses, the district in which the prisoner was convicted is generally considered the more convenient of the two. See Braden v. 30th Judicial Circuit Court, 410 U.S. 484, 493-94 (1973).

Accordingly, finding the district of conviction a more desirable forum of this action, the Court, pursuant to the discretion granted it under 28 U.S.C. § 2241(4), ORDERS this action transferred to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois at Eastern Division for preliminary consideration under Rule 4 of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases. This case is closed on the Court's docket.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
